

Booker for the Commonwealth Political Mobilization Intern - Virtual

Position Summary & Details

Booker for the Commonwealth is seeking a motivated and organized Virtual Political Mobilization Intern to support the campaign's political program through online digital organizing and supporting department operations. Working closely with the Political Director and Political & Mobilization Coordinator, this individual will support in the execution of the campaign's voter contact strategy.

Part time, hybrid cycle hire, remote/hybrid in person.

Primary Responsibilities

- Assist with endorsement tracking, stakeholder engagement, community events, and surrogate requests when assigned.
- Assist with a pipeline for national and virtual volunteers to become involved with existing state campaign field infrastructure.
- Scout online for potential opportunities for political meetings, events, and campaign engagements for the campaign to have a presence at.
- Support internal department organization for emails and calls made to stakeholders such as elected officials, unions and labor organizations, advocacy groups, community organizations, faith leaders, and local supporters.
- Assist with the Coalitions organizing program.
- Assist with drafting for a bi-weekly political newsletter.

Qualifications

- Strong organizational, project management, relationship-building, and communication skills.

How to Apply: Applicants should submit their Resume, References and any additional helpful application materials. Email materials to [EMAIL]

Subject Line: Political Mobilization Intern - Virtual x Applicant Name | Application Deadline: [DATE]

Booker for the Commonwealth Political Mobilization Intern In Person - Louisville

Position Summary & Details

Booker for the Commonwealth is seeking a motivated and organized Political Mobilization Intern based in Louisville to support the campaign's political program through in person organizing and supporting department operations. Working closely with the Political Director and Political & Mobilization Coordinator, this individual will support in the execution of the campaign's voter contact strategy.

Part time, hybrid cycle hire, remote/hybrid in person.

Full-time, in-person/hybrid cycle hire, based in Louisville, Kentucky

Primary Responsibilities

- Assist with endorsement tracking, stakeholder engagement, community events, and surrogate requests when assigned.
- Assist with volunteer recruitment and management in the Louisville HQ.
- Assist with managing & delivering material such as literature and yard signs when assigned.
- Support internal political department organization for emails and calls made to stakeholders such as elected officials, unions and labor organizations, advocacy groups, community organizations, faith leaders, and local supporters.
- Assist with drafting for a bi-weekly political newsletter.
- Assist with the Coalitions organizing program.

Qualifications

- Strong organizational, project management, relationship-building, and communication skills.

How to Apply: Applicants should submit their Resume, References and any additional helpful application materials. Email materials to [EMAIL]

Subject Line: Political Mobilization Intern - Louisville x Applicant Name | Application Deadline: [DATE]